BIGGER
THAN EVER BEFORE

[THINK] LEADERSHIP

As Chairman of the Board of the Orange County Partnership the organization has taken tremendous steps to lay a foundation that allows us to compete for diverse industries as the national economic landscape changes.

For example, the Partnership has most recently focused on turning the supply chain crisis into a unique opportunity for Orange County. This is because our business climate attracts strategic sectors such as food and beverage and advanced manufacturing.

Specifically, this year PharmaCann, Royal Wine/Kedem and Poly Craft, each manufacturers of products used domestically and internationally, are investing significantly in the County. The promising news is that we're just getting started as our pipeline reflects significant interest from these and other sectors including green energy and pharmaceuticals.

Serving as the Chairman of the Board over the past three years has been one of my most rewarding professional experiences because the work of the Orange County Partnership leads to measurable economic sustainability and the creation of jobs.

As the economy changes around us the one thing I am sure of is that the Partnership is our guiding force, working together with each municipality to chart a bright and prosperous future for Orange County, NY.

MICHAEL GILFEATHER
Chairman
Orange County Partnership
Board of Directors

It's not easy to change fundamental market realities, but we are. Orange County is at an inflection point and the time to prepare for significant investment in manufacturing and skilled tradable sectors is now.

This year we have embarked upon a meaningful initiative which will add to our already robust portfolio of project activity. This initiative coincides with a philosophy that we need to be thinking ahead, because without preparation, we are falling behind.

The Partnership's strategic direction reflects our laser focused collaboration with public and private partners - ensuring Orange County is ready to compete in the global marketplace.

[THINKING] TOWARDS THE FUTURE

WHAT IS THE SITE INVENTORY PROGRAM?

The Site Inventory Program (SIP) is a sector-specific approach to attract advanced manufacturing, pharmaceuticals, R&D and other industry clusters that require robust infrastructure. Through this program, we have compiled a portfolio of sites that can accommodate these sectors, while building collaborative partnerships with community leaders and stakeholders.

“The program created predictability and speed to market, positioning us to win projects that were previously out of reach. Winning projects in these sectors doesn’t happen by chance, it requires vision and execution.”

- CONOR ECKERT, Vice President of Business Attraction

- KEY POINTS -

INFRASTRUCTURE:

- Water/sewer capacity and which areas have municipal service
- What is the municipality’s long-term plans for infrastructure

SITES:

- Does the Town have any municipally-owned sites
- Potential growth areas in the Town
- On market/off market sites

SECTORS:

- Support for high-end sectors such as advanced manufacturing, food & beverage processing and life sciences/pharmaceuticals

[THINKING] ABOUT RELOCATING?

ORANGE COUNTY, NY IS THE PERFECT LOCATION

Robust tenant demand has led to a growing number of speculative buildings in Orange County. Both local and national developers are investing in the county – entitling sites and in many cases, building on spec. Market dynamics, strong local leadership, and proximity to consumers has contributed to the increase in spec development. Below are just a handful of the spec buildings that the Orange County Partnership assisted with receiving entitlements.

THESE BUILDINGS ARE NOW TENANT READY:

Their mission is straightforward – to present a strong, unified voice for responsible development in Orange County.
